Dear Alan,

Just a brief note to thank you for sending the Dictaphone belts of Churchill's speech to the U.S. Congress.

It was very kind of you to think of sending these, and we are very glad to have them.

Yours sincerely,

Mr. Malcolm A. Frost
Head, BBC Monitoring Service
Caversham Park
Reading, England

Dear Malcolm:

This will acknowledge your letter of 15 January 1952.

We are, of course, pleased that the Subcommittee of the Joint Intelligence Committee entertains views similar to ours on the reduction of coverage of Moscow in foreign languages. Our letter of 29 November was truly intended to be a compromise resulting in some saving to you, and I was therefore surprised that in your view the proposal would result in no change in your present treatment of Moscow in foreign languages.

25X1

I am sending [] on a trip to all our field stations, which will land them in England toward the end of April. [] will be prepared to discuss this further with appropriate members of your staff at that time.

25X1

Your very kind assurance of maximum advance notice in the event any curtailment becomes necessary in the future is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

25X1
